

Notes from Katy

May was great - and we're ready for June!

Pillars of the Community: The Marshall St Underpass

You may have seen the bright colors going up on the Marshall St/I-20 underpass pillars on your way to the Agora Borealis, and we're here to shed some light on this fantastic, vibrant new public art project.

Check out the link to the blog post below!

Upcoming Events:

June 3rd - Downtown Artwalk and Taffie Garsee's Artist Reception @ The Korner Lounge, 7:30pm.

June 18th - Introduction to Acrylic Painting @ Walter B Jacobs Memorial Nature Park, 10am

June 17th - Adult Tour: Women in American Art @ The Norton Art Gallery, 10am

NEW DATE! June 17th - Poetry Reading by Megan Lush @ Downtown Rhino, 6pm. Free to the public.

June 18th - 'art-ish: black art show @ The LOT, 400 Crockett. Bring the family and join us 12pm-10pm for fun, food, and culture! #MeetMeOutside Admission: $5 at the gate FREE for children 12 and under

NEW THIS MONTH IN OUR GALLERIES:

Lindsey Simpson @ Lake Street "THE FROG TAROT: Major Arcana"

Local artist and designer Lindsey Simpson has undertaken the project of illustrating a full 72-card tarot deck, and shares the first 22 cards, which are called the Major Arcana.

FEATURED WRITER: Ginger Elliot Briggs

Ginger Briggs of Ginger Art Creations shares with us a charming piece recounting a conversation with a dear friend about the Gulf Coast Sheep that provide her with the yarn she uses in her craft.

"GCN fiber is still my favorite though, as the yarn is the perfect weight for Southern winters and is an excellent yarn to mix with other fibers due to its durability. Fibers take dye easily; however, I love the natural colors of buttery whites, browns and even black."

Read the full story and others from past featured writers on The Agora Borealis website!

See you next month!

421 Lake Street
Shreveport, LA 71101

Tuesday - Saturday
10am-6pm

TheAgoraBorealis@gmail.com

Love and Light